In the original version of this Article, in the fifth paragraph of the section titled “Qneo for W7-X discharge 20180918.045,” errors appeared in reference to the configurations shown in the curves of Fig. 3a and associated Fig. 3b–e panels. In the sentence originally reading “This comparison is provided in Fig. 3a for the configurations (Fig. 3b) W7-X standard, (Fig. 3c) W7-X high-mirror, (Fig. 3d) LHD R0 = 3.6 m, and (Fig. 3e) LHD R0 = 3.75 m....,” the references to Fig. 3b–e should instead have referred to the lettered curves “b,c,d,e” shown in the graph of Fig. 3a. The text has now been amended to read: “This comparison is provided in Fig. 3a for the configurations (b) W7-X standard, (c) W7-X high-mirror, (d) LHD R0 = 3.6 m, and (e) LHD R0 = 3.75 m....”

Additionally, a member of the W7-X Team was incorrectly listed as “M. Sanchez”; their name has been corrected to “E. Sánchez.”

The original Article has been corrected online.
